

MISSOURI AND KANSAS.

Jack Wilson, a St. Joe hackman, suicided yesterday.

The Moberly Morning Chronicle is the title of a new paper published in that city.

A coal miner named Wm. Crowell, was run over and instantly killed near Belleville Monday night.

A negro named Austin has been arrested at Manhattan, Kas., for sending scurrilous letters to young ladies.

Messrs. Theodore Schultz, Frank Herscher and Jake Miller, of Jefferson City, had a successful shoot in Oregon county last week. They shot four deer, two of them fine bucks.

Mayor Beck, J. R. Stewart, Mentor Thompson and other wealthy Sedulians are endeavoring to purchase the market house square from the city of Sedalia, with a view to tearing down the city hall and erecting thereon a magnificent opera house.

It is stated on good authority that a good number of democratic legislators will support H. Chas. Brown for the United States senatorship for Missouri. It is understood that Edward L. King, of Jefferson county, will, if elected, throw his vote and influence that way.

The examination at Marysville, Mo., of Mrs. Talbott, her two sons and hired man, for murdering Dr. Talbott, the husband and father, on the night of September 19th, resulted in the committal of the two sons and hired man without bail, and finding Mrs. Talbott an accessory.

Gov. Phelps issued a proclamation to-day stating that it is apprehended that attempts will be made to perpetrate frauds at the coming election, in this state, and directing all sheriffs and other police and executive officers of the state to see that all election laws are strictly enforced, and that a perfectly fair and legal election is secured.

A number of eastern capitalists have formed a company called the Missouri lumber and mining company. The stock invested amounts to $150,000, and they propose operating in the forests and mines of southeast Missouri. In Carter county 410 tracts of land are to be offered at the next term of court, and it is presumed the firm will bid on several thousand acres.