

Mrs. Talbott.

Mr. W. W. Hamsey, prosecuting attorney of Modoc county, is in the city. Yesterday, in conversation with an EREXISO Press reporter, the subject of the Talbott boys was broached. Mr. Hamsey said that Mrs. Talbott, when in society or away from home, wears all the appearance of a gay, dashing, young widow, but he is told that when in the seclusion of the home circle, she broods constantly over the death of her boys, and is very despondent.
