

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 8, 1901.

MINNESOTA

HENNING—Miss Jennie Johnson, aged 30 years, sister of M. Johnson, publisher of the Advocate, is dead.

WHITE EARTH—Robert Fairbanks, Sr., is dead, in the 78th year of his age. He was born at Leech Lake, Sept. 23, 1826.

STILLWATER — The Atwood sawmill started up to-day. The East Side mill will start Tuesday and the Central mill Wednesday. Nearly all of the mills on the St. Croix will be in operation by next Saturday.

RUSHFORD—An alleged grafter, giving the name of Charles Harris, has been victimizing the farmers in this vicinity by taking orders on small cash payments for goods never delivered. He claimed to represent a fur house.

FAIRMONT—The 10-year-old son of T. F. Knappen was severely injured by being thrown from a horse upon a barb wire fence. His feet remained in the stirrups and he was dragged some distance upon the wires. He will be disfigured for life.

CANNON FALLS—Lieutenant Gilbert A. Youngberg, whom the Manila dispatches report as being one of the officers selected to guard Aguinaldo, is a Cannon Falls boy and was sent to the Philippines last fall. He graduated last summer at West Point.

FARIBAULT—The official test of the new steam pump at the waterworks pumping station was made by A. W. Munster, of St. Paul. The machinery was found to be in splendid condition.—E. B. Ford has sold the Referendum to Cicero Talbot, formerly his associate editor.