

ROUND-ABOUTS.

Picked Up and Jotted Down by Democrat Reporters.

—Prof. Nimmo is teaching music at Blanchard, Iowa.

—Wiles & Avery have built an addition to their shop.

—Mrs. McImpsy has been confined to her bed several days with sickness. Mrs. John T. Cleland left for her home at Lincoln, Nebraska, last Monday.

—An infant child of John Linville died last Thursday and was buried on Friday.

—Jas. Ray is back from Denver, Worth county, his eyes being greatly improved.

—Mrs. Henry Stewart of Independence township is lying very low with consumption.

—Prof. Cherry is building a handsome residence on his two lots just west of Chas. C. Graham's.

—Marion Cooper returned from Colorado last Saturday. He reports everything lovely with the Luoma mine.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Llek left Tuesday morning for Colorado Springs to enjoy a month or two in the salubrious climate of the Centennial State.

—Ed M. Moss has been circulating among his many Maryville friends the past few days. He likes Tecumseh very well.

—On Wednesday of last week, Squire James Monier united in marriage Mr. Jeremiah Hager and Mrs. Mary Ann Marker, of Conception.

—Squire W. H. Smith, of Quitman, was united in marriage to Mrs. Helen E. Stackhouse, on last Thursday, by Squire James Monier, of this city.

—Elder Rufus Smith advises us that next Saturday at 1:30 p. m. he will speak in the Court House square on the subject of temperance.

—L. Moore, an old and esteemed citizen of Hughes township, has been lying very low for a month or two past with cancer of the stomach and Bright's disease.

—Elder Cook will preach the funeral services of Job Combs at Shell Grove Sunday, July 31st, at eleven o'clock A. M. Also the funeral of Miss Lewis Correll at five p. m., same day.

—Horace Richmond is in New York City enjoying himself and has seen most of the sights of the metropolis, including Central Park, the Obelisk and Beecher.

—A basket meeting will be held on the first Sunday in August, at the One-Hundred-and-Two river bridge, east of Pickering. Elder L. D. Cook, of the Christian church, will conduct the services.

—The Baptist Institute will convene next Friday at the White Cloud Baptist church, six miles southwest of Maryville, and remain in session over Sunday. A number of ministers will be present and on Sunday there will be a basket dinner. A good time is expected.

—Atchison County Journal: We stated last week that A. C. Hanson was about to pull up stakes for Kansas. He has changed his mind since that time and has concluded to locate in Maryville, and will remove there shortly. Mr. Hanson is a first-class workman and we are loth to part with him.

J. Lieber & Co's.

—Miss Bert Romasser is now clerking in Hurlbut's dry goods store.

—Hurlbut expects to move into his new store next Monday.

—There is a new arrival at the residence of John Curfman. It's a boy and came to town last Saturday.

—Mellehi Snively, father of Hon. Scott K. Snively, in company with his grand-son has been visiting with Scott for several days past.

—County court will convene in regular session next Monday, August 1. Then we will hear something more about the new court house.

—Generals Atchison and Stringfellow have been invited to address the old settlers on the second day of the Nodaway county fair.

—Capt. Felton, superintendent of the Creston gas works, was in the city early in the week looking around with a view to establishing gas works in Maryville.

—The guards and police who protected the scaffold on the day of the execution in Maryville proved to be men of nerve, and by their coolness and determination suppressed what at one time threatened to be a mob.

—Joseph Eppstein now owns the Havana cigar store, lately run under the firm name of J. Collan & Co., and has added a news department to the business, keeping all the latest periodicals and magazines.

—There were some cases of pocket-picking last Friday. James Meek lost $55 out of a side pocket, the book being taken with it; also a certificate of deposit from one of the banks, for some $300. Nick Shoemaker had two or three dollars picked out of his pocket.

—Messrs. Dawson and Ramsay were both out at Burlington Junction Monday on legal business—attending to some suits brought by J. H. Herriff against the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific railway; Mr. Ramsay appearing for Mr. Herriff and Mr. Dawson for the railroad company.

—Graham correspondence to the Holt County Paper mentions that Thomas Hale, who was so badly hurt by the runaway of Mr. Baublit's team, in Maryville, on June 24, will probably recover physically, but mentally that he will probably be deranged. This was a most serious runaway.

—Sheriff Toel arrested in St. Joseph, on last Saturday, May Howard, the girl who took, a few weeks since, some $75 or $80 worth of jewelry and other valuables from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Q. Smith, of this city. A preliminary examination was held before Squire James Monier on Monday.
